Huge Discount on IRC Publications

The IRC has so far brought out a number of publications on different topics of road and bridge construction. Sometime, practicing engineers would like to obtain publication on a particular subject depending upon their area of work and interest. Keeping this in view, the Indian Roads Congress has introduced unique policy of Package Plan of IRC publications for its members and non members. In this plan, set of subject wise package of publications have been prepared. Each package contain all publications so far published by IRC on a particular subject. On purchasing of one package i.e. books costing Rs. 5000/- and above 35% discount is available to members and 10% discount is available to non members. Members may like to avail of this opportunity by procuring one or more set of different packages. This facility is available only for hard copies. Soft copies of publications are not included in this scheme. The details of packages are given below
